

Project: "Cybersecurity and disinformation online"
Element	Description
Project leader	Infotech Foundation
Leader description	The Infotech Foundation runs modern schools: Infotech High School and Infotech Programming Technical School in Białystok. The foundation specializes in IT education, programming and developing digital competences. More information : https://fundacja.infotech.edu.pl/
Project goal	Increasing awareness and skills in the field of cybersecurity and counteracting disinformation among students, teachers, administration and officials
Priority	Priority 3 of the Interreg Lithuania-Poland Program

Proposed actions
Action	Description	Benefits
Cybersecurity training	Workshops for students, older people, training for teachers and administration, webinars for officials	Increasing knowledge and skills in securing IT systems and recognizing cyber threats
Educational campaign on disinformation	Development of brochures, posters, educational films, competitions for students, public debates and discussion panels	Promoting awareness and critical thinking skills towards disinformation
Cross-border cooperation	Organization of international conferences and seminars, exchange program for students, teachers and officials	Sharing best practices and building cooperation networks between Poland and Lithuania
Online platform	Development and maintenance of an online platform, regular updates	Constant access to the latest information and educational resources, interactive exchange of experiences
Disinformation Response Team	Team recruitment and training, operational activities	Effective monitoring and response to disinformation threats
Joint regional center for the fight against disinformation	Creation of the center, cooperation with institutions	Coordination of activities at the regional level, strengthening inter-sectoral cooperation
Notification tools	Development of applications and systems, integration with social media platforms	Quickly informing the public about current threats and disinformation
Partners wanted
Description	We are looking for partners from Lithuania who will be interested in cooperation in the above activities. We are open to cooperation with educational institutions, non-governmental organizations, government agencies and other entities that share our goals and are ready to engage in the implementation of the project.

Benefits of partnership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cooperation within an international project with the possibility of exchanging knowledge and experiences. - Access to training and educational materials in the field of cybersecurity and disinformation. - Possibility to participate in international conferences and seminars. - Joint development of tools and platforms supporting education and online safety.
--------------------------------	--

Contact
First name and last name	Karol Przybyszewski
E-mail	projects@infotech.edu.pl
Telephone	+48 519 073 096
www	https://fundacja.infotech.edu.pl/
Address	INFOTECH Foundation street Ciepła 40 15-472 Białystok

We are waiting for your applications and count on fruitful cooperation!